

Dana's introduction

Jennifer Rosen: In the first part, Dana introduces herself.

Dana Denis-Smith: So my name is Dana Denis-Smith. I am the founder and chief executive officer of Obelisk Support. It is a legal marketplace that connects lawyers to large companies and law firms.

I came to become a lawyer by training at one of the top law firms in the world. And before that, I was a journalist for a variety of media outlets. And so I had quite a varied career.
